

103^D CONGRESS
1ST SESSION

H. R. 2233

To deny, under certain conditions, most-favored-nation treatment to the products of countries that engage in nuclear explosive device testing.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MAY 20, 1993

Mr. STARK (for himself, Ms. PELOSI, and Mr. SABO) introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means

A BILL

To deny, under certain conditions, most-favored-nation treatment to the products of countries that engage in nuclear explosive device testing.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

3 That General Note 3(b) of the Harmonized Tariff Sched-
4 ule of the United States is amended—

5 (1) by inserting “(i)” before “Notwithstand-
6 ing”; and

7 (2) by adding at the end the following:

8 “(ii) If the President determines that a foreign country
9 has tested a nuclear explosive device at any time during
10 a period in which the United States is—

1 “(A) observing a moratorium on the testing of nu-
2 clear explosive devices; or
3 “(B) party to a comprehensive nuclear explosive test
4 ban treaty;
5 the President shall proclaim that the rates of duty
6 shown in column 2 shall apply to the products of
7 that country, whether imported directly or indirectly,
8 that are entered during the 1-year period beginning
9 on the date of such determination.”.
